SIGNS OF VICTORY.

DEMOCRATIC AID REFUSED CONKLING. EUPERINTENDENT DUTCHER ABANDONS THE CONK-LING "WORKERS"—GENERAL SHARPE DEFENDS HIS COURSE-AN ATTEMPT AT ADJOURNMENT

An attempt of the Conkling men to secure Democratic aid has signally failed. Mr. Dutcher has left Albany, being threatened with impeachment if he continued to work in the interest of the Conkling faction. Mr. Lapham came within four votes of being elected Senator yesterday. Senator Jacobs proposed to adjourn the Legislature without electing a Senator, but his motion was rejected. Six Conkling men voted with the Democrats for it. General Sharpe yesterday replied forcibly to his assailants. There is a fair prospect that Mr. Lapham will be elected to-day.

NEARING THE END.

MR. CONKLING FAILS TO FORM AN ALLI INCE WITH THE DEMOCRATS-MR, DUTCHER LEAVES THE SCENE-MEMBERS PREPARING FOR HOME,

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] ALBANY, July 20 .- Mr. Conkling is rapidly exhausting his expedients to prevent the election of Mr. Lapham. To-day he is aware that his negotiation with the leaders of the Democratic party here and in New-York for the transfer of the votes of the Democratic members of the Legislature to himself for Senator is a failure. The alliance is respectfully declined. It is doubtful if the votes could have been transferred if the leaders had given their consent, but the combination is declined on the ground that it would not be profitable to the Democratic party. The Democratic leaders think that the attitude of their party during the Senatorial straugle has been a wise one, and that it might lose what it has gained in the estimation of the voters of the State, by an alliance with Mr. Conkling. The negotiations have not been confined to the Democratic leaders apparently, for Senator McCarthy in his speech in the Senate to-day, on the question of adjourning he Legislature, unequivocally said that the Democratic members of the Legislature had been requested to vote for Mr. Conkling. By his resignation, he said, Mr. Conkling throw the Senate into the hands of the Democratic party; to-day he is asking the Democratic members of the Legislature to join with his supporters to elect him United States Senator. It is reported among the Administration leaders to-night that the negotiations for the transfer of the Democratic votes to Mr. Conkling were started in New-York, and that then the scene was shifted to Albany.

INTRIGUES IN ALBANY.

John F. Smyth was summoned from the Thousand Islands to carry on the negotiation here with the Democratic leaders. He naturally chose Daniel Manning, of Albany, the lea ler of the Democrats in the interior of the State, as the man through whom to make such a bargain. Mr. Manning, however, firmly refused to give his consent. He is reported to have said that under no circumstances would be urge the Democratic members to vote for Mr. Conkling. Mr. Manning's resistance was fatal to the success of the negotiation, as Mr. Smyth was aware, and accordingly it was at once given up. Mr. Smyth showed his opini n of Mr. Conkling's chances of successfully resisting Mr. Lapham's election by returning to the Thousand Islands this afternoon. MR. DUTCHER RETIRES.

Superintendent Dutcher, of the Public Works, also departed from the city to-night to attend to some neglected works on the Eric Canal. If there is delay in the election of a Senator it is due to Mr. Dutcher's influence in behalf of Mr. Conkling. As superintendent of the canals his political influence extends into nearly every part of the State. He has lavishly used his patronage in Mr. Conkling's behalf. Perhaps one-third of the men who are now voting for Mr. Conkling do so out of gratitude for canal appointments granted by Mr. Dutcher. It was natural under these circumstances that the Administration leaders should send him word the Conkling men with the Democrats, that that was levelled instead at Roscoe Conkling. The for Mr. Conkling they would take measures to prevent his obtaining other great from the Republican party. Frightened perhaps by this threat Mr. Dutcher at once professed great friendship with the supporters of Mr. Lapham; he also called upon Mr. Lapham and assured that gentleman that in a few days be would be elected by a larger vote than Mr. Miller Hints were even thrown out by him that the entire vote of Mr. Conkling would be transferred to Mr. Lapham. No trust is put in these promises by the Administration leaders. A NEW POLICY ADOPTED.

To-night the Administration leaders have changed their policy toward Mr. Conkling's supporters, All solicitation of votes from them for Mr. Lapham has been abandoned. The Mr. Lapham has been abandoned. The men who voted for Miller and now for several days have been putting off Mr. Lapham with promises are left to their own thoughts. It is evident that they are fast losing the gratitude with which they were regarded by the Administration leaders last Saturday apon voting for Mr. Miller. They are therefore putting in jeopardy any benefit they expect to derive from an alliance with the new political powers of the State. Mr. Conkling will never forgive their temporary treachery to him in voting for Mr. Miller, however much he may express pleasure at their present course. It is considered surprising in view of these facts that they still cling to Mr. Conkling. Most of them do so under orders from the local "boss" who sent them to Albany, but there are young men of ambition and ability among them who could afford to defy the "boss" and trust to the voters of their districts to sustain them in their course.

Although there is no sign of an election of Senator to-night, other than Dutcher's perturbed state of mind, there is a general impression that before the close of the week Mr. Lapham will be elected. Members are arranging their affairs and getting ready their baggage. With this thought the Congressional Election bill was passed by the Senate to-day. In the Assembly, the Democrats were in a suspicious mood. Some said frankly that they feared the Governor would call an election in the Republican districts and avoid calling them in the sole Democratic district—that of the late Fernando Wood. They said they thought he Governor ought to be compelled to callion election day every district, if any. In order to meet their objections the bill was promptiv ordered to a third reading. In the morning it will be amended by a mixed committee of Democrats and Republicans and passed.

ADJOURNMENT RESISTED.

BENATOR JACOBS TRIES TO ADJOURN THE LEGISLA-TURE IN THE INTEREST OF THE DEMOCRATS-THE ATTEMPT DEFEATED-SIX CONKLING SENA-TORS VOTE WITH THE DEMOCRATS.

FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE. ALBANY, July 20 .- The scheme of Mr. Conkling's supporters to adjourn the Legislature sithout electing the Senators has now been defeated in both Houses; yesterday in the Assembly and to-day in the Senate. Senator Jacobs moved the resolution in the Senate after the Joint Convention. Apparently the Senate was in a mood for a political debate, for Instantly several Republican Senators were on their leet, claiming recognition from the chair. Senator Woodin was recognized. He moved that the date mentioned in the resolution, July 23, be changed to December 31. There was an apprehension, he said, among the people that the Legislature would adout electing the other Senator. It was rumored about the State also that the Senate would consent to an adjournment next week. It would therefore be well to make the announcement through a vote that the Republican majority proposed to remain in Albany till at least the remaining Senator was elected. Senator Jacobs interrupting him said: "Why not amend the reso-

Il substance:

I have felt all along that I should not vote for an adjournment till both the United States Senators were elected. But as the case now stands, believing that we are prevented from electing by the action of the two caucus committees, believing that if we persist in remaining in deadlock it will end in the ruin of the grand old Republican party—

"That is the fourth time we have heard that phrase," said Senator Pitts maliciously.

Senator Halbert glared at his persecutor and replied earnestly: "Yes, and you ought to hear it again and again till you have the interest of the Republican party at heart. "Take off Mr. Conkling's collar and we will listen to you," answered Mr. Pitts, unabashed.

"Well," continued Mr. Halbert, "I give notice that unless a caucus is held I shall vote for an adjournment of the Legislature without electing the Senator McCarty replied to Mr. Halbert at considerable length, arguing especially that the Republican caucus held a fortnight ago was as legal a caucus in a party sense as that held in January last when Mr. Platt was nominated. He also criticised and leaving it in the bands of the Democrats. In conclusion, Senator McCarthy said: conclusion, Senator McCarthy said:

I am not surprised at Mr. Halbert's action, since Roscoc Conkling tightened the collar around his neck yesterday. Last week he was opposed to adjournment. This week he is in faver of it. Who are Mr. Conkling's friends i If there was a man who dared to defy his will they were thrown aside to political death. But if you obey his will you are all right. When I look over this list of Conkling men, twenty-nine of them now, who are not willing to subjust to the majority, who are not willing to subjust to the majority, who are not willing to subjust to the majority, who are not willing to vote for a man, a triend of Conkling's, always his friend till now, a superior lawyer, I am amazed. A large proportion of these twenty-nine men wear the collar of Mr. Conkling.

Senator Mills said:

Senator Mills said;

As a Republican I believe there is an aspect of this matter not spoken of before. This move to adjourn is a Democratic movement. It is introduced by a Democrat; it is always applanded by the Democrats. It involves the control of the United States Senate. When I hear Mr. Halbert say he does this in the interest of the Republican party I am surprised. Actions speak londer than words. If the United States Senate meets without having two New-York Senators in Washington these men who yote for adjournment will be held responsible.

Senator Woodin's motion to lay the resolution on the table, which was in effect killing it, was adopted by a vote of 17 to 13. The vote was as follows, six of Mr. Coukling's supporters voting against the mo tion [Republicans in Roman; Democrats in italies] Ayes—Baker, Birdsall, Davenport, Loomis, Lerd, Lynde, Madden, McCarthy, Mills, Pitts, Robertson, Rock-well, Schroeder, Sessions, Wagner, Wendover, Woodin—17. Nays—Bixby, Braman, Eddman, Fowler, Halbert, Hogan, Jacobs, Murtha, Seebacher, Stevens, Strahan, Williams, Winslow—13.

MR. LAPHAM RECEIVES THE VOTES OF ALL THE GARFIELD REPUBLICANS WITH ONE EXCEPTION -GENERAL SHARPE REPLIES TO HIS ASSAILANTS, Albany, July 20.—There was a larger attendance at the Joint Convention to-day, but the relation of the votes received by the leading candidates was precisely the same. Two ballots for Senator were taken, with the same result on each occasion. The vote was as follows: FIFTY-SECOND AND FIFTY-THIRD BALLOTS

Speaker Sharpe had a singular duel with Mr. Spinola during the Convention. Spinola had heard that the Speaker was going to reply to his speech of yesterday, and therefore refrained from voting when his name was called, intending to reply to Mr. Sharpe, whose name is lower down on the roll, when the absentees were called. Speaker Sharpe perceived his intention and also refrained from voting. He then called for the absentees. Again Mr. Spinola refraised from voting. The Convention by this time had become aware of the contest, and keenly watched the Speaker. He arose when his name was called a second time, and apparently this afternoon, in view of the aegotiations of disdaining Spinola as an opponent, made a speech he persisted in remaining here working speech was universally regarded as an able rebeen guilty of perfidy in voting for Mr. Lapham. Throughout it was listened to with deep interest by the Convention. At its close Spinola voted without making any reply. The speech was as follows:

I ask to be excused from voting and will briefly state my reasons. Mr. Freshent, an allusion was made on this floer yesterday to what has been the subject matter of a letter to a leading. New York paper. The Allomy Argus of yesterday morning repristed that letter and called attention to it in a most marked manner, stating that there was evidence that it was inspired by a gentleman who is a candidate on this floor for the office of United States Senator. The letter contained some vulgarities, with a reference to the manner in which I lived last winter, which no gentleman upon this floor will expect me to allude to. Further than that, low-ever, that letter made reference to some things to which allusion has been made in some other papers, to the suggestion that a certain member in his voting upon this floor had, by reason of his leaving a candidate for whom he had before voted, been unfaithful to that candidate; that on account of political favors received from him, he had been ungrateful to him.

Mr. President, the suggestion is that when one man does another a political favors assists him to obtain or hold an office, he thereby reverses that servers.

THE BROADWAY TUNNEL SCHEME. ANOTHER HEARING BEFORE THE COMMISSION.

The Commissioners appointed to take evidence in order to ascertain whether there is any reason why the Broadway Underground Connecting Railway Company should not be allowed to construct a tunnel underneath Broadway, held another sitting yesterday in the room of the General Term of the Supreme Court. Passenger rates to the West remained yesterday as they have been since the last reduction on surprise that the rate should remain so long without far resulted in failure, the long tenure of the $10 rate would tempt one to suspect that it had been agreed upon as the uniform rate autil a settlement could be had or the general agents had formally agreed not to agree. The meeting of General Passenger Agents which it was thought would take place yesterday in Commissioner Flak's rooms, was not held. The reason is said to have been the refusal of Mr. Mecker, of the New-York Central, to attend. Mr. Lord, of the Baitimore and thoo Rood, came to the city yesterday morning, and he and Mr. Abbot, of the Eric, were ready to attend. The former, while denying that there had been a meeting, admitted that he had been at Mr. Flak's either. PRESIDENT GARFIELD.

HIS STEADY ADVANCE TO RECOVERY. PPREHENSION NO LONGER FELT-TEMPERATURE AND RESPIRATION NORMAL YESTERDAY-TIRED OF THE SICK-BED AND LONGING FOR A SAIL-

CONGRATULATIONS FROM TURKEY AND JAPAN, The temperature and respiration of the President yesterday were normal; his usual afternoon fever appeared late and quickly abated. He passed the most comfortable day since he was shot. He is auxious to leave the sick room, and preparations are making to have him taken aboard the Tallapoosa about August 15. Congratulations on the bright prospects of his recovery have been received #### from the rulers of Turkey and Japan. BEST DAY SINCE THE SHOOTING.

MENT VESSEL. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Washington, July 20.—The President has to-day passed the best day since he was wounded. There has been only a slight recurrance of the fever. His appetite has been good, and his food is assimilated well, but it has not been of a solid nature. The physicians do not again propose to overload the President's delicate stomach. The President, of course, is weak and is weary from lying so long in bed. He is looking forward now chiefly to the time. when he can take the trip upon the Potomac and possibly a sea voyage, which has been promised him by the middle of August, if he continues to improve. Arrangements are already making so that that trip may be as safe and comfortable as pos-

The Tallapoosa, a United States steamer now out of commission, is undergoing repairs and was to be ready for service on September 1. Hamburg-American Line steamer Servia, Captain Franzen, and had her rugsing, toat, bridge and upperworks damaged considerably. The Servia received but slight injury. that she may be ready by August 15. This vessel is a paddle-wheel, and the physicians and naval offi-cers have agreed that it will be better adapted for the proposed use of it than the Dispatch, a steamer of the same size, which is a serew. The Tallapoosa is to be arranged with a swinging berth, so that the President will be as little affected as possible by the movements of the ship.

The plan is, as soon as he can safely be moved, to remove him from his present malarial surroundings, place him upon this Government steamer and take him to the vicinity of Hampton Roads and the Cape, him to the vicinity of Hampton Roads and the Cape, avoiding rough water and rough weather. If he shall improve with the sea air and there shall be a fair day, he may be taken later to Long Branch. In any event, it is the purpose to spend the days of convalescence on board this vessel, as the surgeons would not be willing to permit him to travel by rail for a long time.

Little things still affect the President very much, and, not withstanding that an apparatus for lifting him, similar to that in use at Bellevue Hospital, has been prepared and was attached to his bed by Dr. Nichols, the surgeons have ordered it to be removed, as it is feared that its presence would excite him. They trace the two relapses that he has had in great measure to excitements which might have been avoided.

A BUSINESS MAN ON GUITEAUS CRIME. St. Louis, July 20 .- The fifth annual convention of the National Cotton Exchange met at the Southtion of the National Cotton Exchange met at the Southern Hotel to day. J. Lalitte, the president, in his annual address, alluded to the late murderous assault upon President Garfield, characterizing it as a blow struck at the stability of our institutions; and the introduction of a new element of uncertainty into commercial circles. In Europe, he said, the assassination of a rujer is only the substitution of one executive for another; a change that would have taken place under the haws of the Nation; but in this country it is the milifying of the express will of the people by the unprincipled act of a scoundrel, and mucht change the whole policy of the Government and unsettle every business interest.
